

IN KRABAT'S FOOTSTEPS

NA SLĚDACH KRABATA

Discover the fascinating world of the legendary KRABAT on the 91-kilometer KRABAT Cycle Path. The route takes you to historic sites where the legendary figure once lived and offers fascinating insights into the language, culture, and traditional customs of the Sorbs. Experience a unique tour through the enchanting cultural landscape of Upper Lusatia, where the myth of KRABAT and the story of Johann von Schadowitz intersect. Enjoy quality KRABAT brand products along the way.

Wutrobnje witajće k nam – Welcome to our world.

1 Kamenz / Kamjenc

With sustainable infrastructure and rental bikes and bicycle service, the Lessing town of Kamenz is the ideal starting point for your cycling tour. Discover the historic old town, the various museums, the KRABAT playground, and the diverse range of restaurants.

2 Weißig / Wysoka

In Weißig, you can explore the picturesque pond landscape within the nature reserve, which is especially known for its carp farming. Linger by the water and sample regional fish dishes at the pond farm (pre-booking required).

3 Schwarzkollm / Čorný Chołmc

Experience the KRABAT Mill in Schwarzkollm – the setting of the famous KRABAT saga. The meticulously reconstructed „Black Mill“ offers hands-on tours, children's programs, baking classes, handicrafts, and regional specialties such as buttermilk pancakes in the farmhouse parlor or boiled beef with horseradish in the restaurant.

4 Hoyerswerda / Wojerecy

Experience the freedom of two wheels and take a detour to Hoyerswerda. Here, you'll find excellent transport links and first-class bike service. Embark on the KRABATSchadowitz Adventure Tour – solve exciting puzzles and immerse yourself in the mysterious world of legends at the Lausitz Center Hoyerswerda.

5 Wittichenau / Kulow

In the small town's market square, you'll be greeted personally by Johann von Schadowitz, the historical interpreter of the legendary figure KRABAT. Those who have the time and inclination can sit down with him or listen to some of his stories at 10 stops on the KRABATSchadowitz Adventure Tour. A MUST-VISIT is the Catholic parish church in Wittichenau, where Schadowitz was buried in 1704.

6 Kotten / Kočina

The KRABAT Milk World in Kotten is an insider tip for a quick rest. The charming milk ramp invites you to linger, and on the „Up Close to the Cows“ discovery tour, you can experience the animals and the farm up close. Regional delicacies like KRABAT Milk World ice cream and cheese specialties like „Schwarzer Müller“ and „KRABATello“ await you in the farm shop.

7 Groß Särchen / Wulke Ždžary

Johann von Schadowitz spent his final years at the Old Vorwerk (Seeweg 9) and died in the „Zum Schwan“ restaurant. At the KRABAT Home, you can learn more about the good spirit of KRABAT-Schadowitz from Lusatia ambassador Wolfgang Kraus and tour the New Vorwerk.

8 Eutrich / Jitk

In Martin Nowak-Neumann's book „Master Krabat, the Good Sorbian Magician,“ it is reported that Krabat grew up as the stepson of a poor shepherd in Eutrich. Today, the Krabat Farm, a farm and riding stable, invites you to rest and relax, immersing you in modern-day „agriculture.“

9 Crostwitz / Chróšćicy

In the center of the Sorbian settlement area, bilingualism and vibrant customs characterize life. The Sorbian writer Jurij Brězan is buried in the churchyard; his tales of the Krabat legend preserve Sorbian culture.

10 Panschwitz-Kuckau / Pančicy-Kukow

St. Marienstern Monastery is a cultural and religious center. Discover the treasury, the idyllic monastery garden, and the cozy monastery café. In the adjacent park, the Jakub Bart Čišinski Trail invites you on a journey of discovery with exciting stories about the Sorbian poet.

11 Steinbruch in Miltitz / Skała w Miłočicach

The International Sculpture Days have been held annually in August at the Miltitz quarry since 2006. The sculptures, created from wood, stone, and other materials, are on display year-round and are a worthwhile detour. Guided tours focusing on permaculture round out the offerings.
